

IT Application Development Intern

BE AN ESSENTIAL PART OF EVERYDAY LIFE

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A 12- MONTH INTERNSHIP IN A GLOBALLY LEADING COMPANY?

With around 570,000 colleagues in 220 countries and territories, we're one of the biggest private employers in the world. That international outlook is something you'll experience every day, along with amazing opportunities to work with people from around the globe.

What will be your job?

- Work independently on software development and support activities for Corporate applications of IT and Business Project Delivery Departments, HR, and other departments within Europe, Middle East and Africa region
- Build SharePoint Online-based web applications and occasionally build custom cloud web applications using Java or .Net and hosted on Azure to help deliver business objectives
- Work on regional data analytics initiatives (e.g., data mining, predictive analytics, machine learning, business intelligence, etc.) by coding on Python, Power BI, etc.
- Support the IT Project Management Office by coordinating and managing project tasks, timelines and scope Who are we looking for?

Your profile:

- University-level education in Information Technology, Computer Science or related streams
- Understanding/exposure to report development using Power BI or other reporting systems, understanding of databases (SQL) and coding with Python
- Have hands-on experience of web applications development using SharePoint (preferred) or Java / DotNet
- Creative, solution oriented, great team player with exceptional communication skills in English

If you have any questions about this position, please contact Luna Fernandez (luna.fernandez@dhl.com)

We look forward to your application!

