

Trainee in Project Delivery Department

BE AN ESSENTIAL PART OF EVERYDAY LIFE

ARE YOU GRADUATING OR HAVE YOU JUST FINISHED UNIVERSITY, AND WANT TO MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR KNOWLEDGE?

DHL offers you a unique opportunity to gain professional experience and start a career right after college!

In 24 months, you will be well prepared for the next stage of your career at DHL Supply Chain. During the development program you will work in different areas of project management. You will get the chance to work closely with our company and operations.

We recruit fast-learning and visionary young potentials with a hands-on mindset and "can-do" attitude, who take initiative and are constantly looking for improvements in their area.

What will be your job?

- Collaborate on projects, propose new solutions - you can implement yourself
- Implement new projects independently internally and with the customer
- Participate in the running of the project department
- Analyze logistics data - you just feel at home in Excel
- You will gradually go through several positions with different content and within different projects to gain as much experience and skills as possible

Your profile:

- Graduated Bachelor or Master in Logistics, Transport, Economics, Technical/Engineering (max. 1 year after graduation)
- Advanced knowledge of MS Office (Excel and PowerPoint)
- Interested in logistics and supply chain
- Very good knowledge of English and Polish language (verbally and in writing)
- Analytical, eager to strive for the best result every day, communicative, proactive, energetic and ready to take on challenges are traits that suit you well
- Creative and innovative skill
- Thinking outside of the box
- Attentive and accurate skills

If you have any questions about this position, please contact Luna Fernandez (luna.fernandez@dhl.com)

We look forward to your application!

